Transportation

NOTE: Participants are responsible for arranging and paying all their travel costs.

Washington is served by three major airports: Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport, Washington Dulles International Airport in northern Virginia, and Baltimore/Washington International Airport near Baltimore. You can also take the train to Washington's Union Station.

Ground Transportation Union Station and Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport are on the Metro subway line. More information, including subway maps, is available from the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority at 202-637-7000 or www.wmata.com.

Super Shuttle (<http://www.supershuttle.com/>) provides ground transportation from all airports. Their offices are located in the baggage claim area of the airport. Taxi service is also available.

Parking at the Bethesda Marriott (Pooks Hill) costs $8/day for self park and $12 for valet service.

Special Needs

If you have special needs that need accommodation, please contact Susan Kerin at (301) 468-6004 ext 459 or susank@md.capconcorp.com for assistance.
